

HOT JOB OF THE WEEK

Park Ranger

*Department of the Interior
National Park Service*

Experience your America and build a fulfilling career by joining the National Park Service. The National Park Service wants you to be a part of their mission to unite America's past, America's cultures and America's special places, to establish important connections to the present and build a rich and lasting legacy for future generations. Park Rangers are responsible for educating and informing visitors about the significance of the resources of the park and about the laws, rules, and regulations relating to the protection of the resources and to the operations of the park and safe use of its resources.

In your position as a Park Ranger you will:

- Educate visitors about the importance of the park resources and about the laws and rules of the park.
- Manage the use of park's resources by visitors, concessionaries, commercial-use licenses and other individuals in the public.
- Monitor the measures that boaters take to avoid spreading aquatic nuisance species in the park.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States citizen.
- You must possess the qualifying specialized experience and education as described in the Occupational/Assessment Questions section of the job posting.

Salary: 30,772.00 USD/ year

Location: Page, AZ

Application Timeline: Open period January 31, 2009 to December 31, 2009

Contact Information: AZ Servicing Human Resources Office
Phone: (928)638-7770x1
Email: GRCA_PERSONNEL@NPS.GOV
Control Number: 1461804

For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.

