

HOT JOB OF THE WEEK

Archeological Aid

Department of Agriculture

USDA has created a strategic plan to implement its vision. The framework of this plan depends on these key activities: expanding markets for agricultural products and support international economic development, further developing alternative markets for agricultural products and activities, providing financing needed to help expand job opportunities and improve housing, utilities and infrastructure in rural America, enhancing food safety by taking steps to reduce the prevalence of foodborne hazards from farm to table, improving nutrition and health by providing food assistance and nutrition education and promotion, and managing and protecting America's public and private lands working cooperatively with other levels of government and the private sector.

USAjobs.gov control number: 853820

In your position as Archeological Aid you will:

- Support the information and data gathering, development and dissemination processes relating to archeological studies.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States Citizen or National.
- Must have six months of general experience that demonstrates your ability to perform the work of the position or familiarity with the subject matter of the occupation.

Salary: $22,900 - $53,700 per year

Location: Vacancies throughout the United States

Application Deadline: February 13, 2009

Contact Information: Human Resources
Phone: 111-111-1111
Fax: 530-226-2480
Email: r5_shastatrinity_jobapps@fs.fed.us

*For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.
For more information use key words from this announcement to search www.usajobs.gov. Also check out this site for information on other jobs in federal service.*

