

HOT JOB OF THE WEEK

---

Healthy People Communication Fellowship

Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion

The mission of the Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion (ODPHP) is to provide leadership, coordination and support for disease prevention and health promotion activities, programs and policies. ODPHP leads the development and implementation of the Healthy People initiative, which provides a comprehensive set of national disease prevention and health promotion objectives. As an HPC fellow, you will work primarily on Healthy People 2020 communication, web and promotion activities. You will be exposed to policy development, collaboration and decision making at the highest levels within the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

---

In your position as an HPC Fellow you will:

- Work in collaboration with the ODPHP Community Strategies Team and Communication and e-health Team to help oversee and provide strategic vision in the redesign and management of the Healthy People Web site.
- Work in collaboration with the ODPHP Community Strategies Team and Communication and e-health Team to plan, implement and evaluate outreach for the launch of Healthy People 2020.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States citizen, a non-citizen national or possess a visa permitting permanent residency.
- You must have completed a graduate degree in communication, marketing or public health.
- You must be a member of the Association for Prevention Teaching and Research (APTR) if awarded the fellowship.

Salary: 45,000.00 – 55,000.00 USD/ year

Location: Washington, D.C.

Closing Date: February 4, 2010

Contact Information: Emily A. Springer
Phone: (202) 463-0550, ext. 137
Email: training@aptrweb.org
Web site: http://aptrweb.org/prof\_dev/fellowships\_HCF.html

For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.