

HOT JOB OF THE WEEK

Emerging Leaders Program

Department of Health and Human Services

The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Emerging Leaders Program (ELP) is a competitive, two-year, paid, federal internship within HHS. The program provides interns with a unique opportunity to develop enhanced leadership skills in one of the largest federal agency's in the nation. HHS is looking for talented and highly-motivated individuals with a commitment to public service. The program provides an excellent opportunity for participants to begin a professional career in HHS.

In your position in the Emerging Leaders Program you will:

- Be placed in one of the following career tracks: Administrative, Social Sciences, Public Health, Human Resources, Scientific, Information Technology or Law Enforcement.
- Participate in challenging rotational assignments in a fast-paced and diverse work environment.
- Receive formal competency-based leadership training and professional development opportunities.
- Receive opportunities for promotion and non-competitive conversion to a permanent appointment.

Requirements:

- You must be a United States citizen.
- You must have a masters or equivalent graduate degree.
- You must meet the requirements for the GS-09 level.

Salary: 48,585.00 – 50,408.00 USD/year

Closing Date: Applications will be accepted until 11:59 p.m. EST of the day HHS receives the 1,200th completed application or if fewer than 1,200 applications are received the closing date will be 11:59 p.m. EST of December 7, 2009

Locations: Washington, D.C.
Baltimore, MD
Atlanta, GA

Contact Information: Email: Atlanta@opm.gov
<http://hhsu.learning.hhs.gov/elp/>

For this announcement and others like it see www.makingthedifference.org.

